

Fellow Teacher of the Year Award

This award is an opportunity to recognize an individual who makes an exemplary contribution to our fellowship training program.

Terms of Reference

Criteria that should be considered when choosing a nominee include:

- Quality of radiology teaching, including breadth of areas covered and clarity of teaching
- Enthusiasm for teaching and learning
- Able to provide constructive, well-organized and appropriate feedback
- Clinical excellence in quality of radiology care
- Support for academic activities such as teaching, multidisciplinary rounds, presentations and publications
- Positive role model for fellows
- Being available and approachable to fellows

Process:

At the end of April of each academic year, nomination forms will be emailed to all Diagnostic Imaging fellows by the Chair's office. They should be returned to Marilyn Scott by May 31st. Each clinical fellow is permitted to nominate 1 radiologist with whom s/he has trained during the academic year. Both quantitative scores and qualitative comments will be taken into consideration by the selection committee.

Award committee:

An academic group [Chair of the Department, DEC and Fellowship Program Director(s)], headed by the Chair, will evaluate the award nominations and decide by a simple majority. If a member of the committee is nominated, he or she will excuse themselves from the committee for that year. Another radiologist(s) will be nominated to sit on the selection committee in their place at the discretion of the Chair.

Presentation:

Presentation of the award will be made at the graduation dinner in June. The award includes a certificate from the Chair/ Fellowship Program Director(s) and a voucher for the McMaster University Titles shop for $150.00. The successful candidate's name will be engraved on a plaque that will be populated each year.
